DESCENDENTS

September 1955

Would'st thou trust thy name to dumb forgetfulness, or to the rotting graveyard stone? Nay: rather place it on the page of a Book!

PREFATORY

The compiler of this Family register believes that it may contain some errors. The information has come from many sources; statements of alleged facts are in some cases contradictory and there may be omissions. We will be glad to have these facts furnished in future, to have the omissions supplied and errors to be corrected. The information for these pages has been coming in for a period of time, and no doubt new information may be available at this time.

I wish to acknowledge the patient assistance of the many members of the Hamilton families in the preparation of this book, to those who have supplied information regarding subsequent births, marriages, deaths and other incidents of their respective families.

Historian.

INTRODUCTORY

It is a purpose of this book to bring the widely scattered members of this numerous Family of Hamiltons to a knowledge of each other. In many instances it has been found that those who have removed from their original home and settled elsewhere, have keenly felt their isolation and estrangement from the old associations, have been within easy reach of their kinsman, who have done the same, both being equally ignorant of the existence and proximity of those to whom they were bound by the ties of blood.

It is a purpose of this book to inscribe the names of those now living where they will endure beyond the time when those engraven upon stone shall have become moss-eaten and rusted beyond recognition.

It is a purpose of this book to discharge a pious duty to the memory of our Ancestors, and over their ashes to raise humble monument in commemoration of their lives, their deeds and their virtues.

May we not hope that as the years roll on, the persons and events here recorded will possess almost a reverent interest to those who follow them, and especially to those bound to them by relationship. After a lapse of little more than a hundred years, the original Hamiltons are to us, Patriarchs. In how brief a time will some of the present generations become patriarchs to our descendants? How important then, that the story should be told on the living page, while yet it may be done, else we shall soon be forgotten forever of men.

To the Memory of the above we inscribe:

"Sleep, sacred earth, but thou shalt soon arise,
Dust returns to dust, but virtue never dies;
The Hamiltons live, blest in immortal youth,
Who lived, while here, the advocate of truth.
Firm in the cause of God, they held to view,
A character Sublime, yet humble too,
God's word their guide, they bent their eagle flight
On Faith's strong wings, to the better realms of light.

Oh! death where is thy sting,
Oh! grave where is thy victory!"

DAISY DEANE (BILLMAN) LAFFERRE

died Jan.7

(obituary)

Mrs. Daisy Deane Lafferre, wife of J.W. Lafferre, died at their home at Lewisville, Ohio, Friday morning, January 7th after an illness of several weeks from pneumonia and complications. Medical skill and the most devoted service in nursing availed not in counteracting the progress of a disease which even strong constitutions often do not survive.

Mrs. Lafferre was a daughter of Fred and Hannah Billman, and was born October 18, 1869 near Lewisville and spent practically her entire life in that community. On December 24, 1887 she was united in marriage to J.W. Lafferre to which union four children were born. They are:- Fred of Lewisville; Charles of Akron; James and Mrs. Viola Baker at home.

Besides the husband and children, Mrs. Lafferre is also survived by three brothers, John Billman of Lewisville; James Billman of Woodsfield and Charles Billman of Pittsburg. One sister, Mrs. Oliver DeVoe died several years ago.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at 10:30 at the M.P. Church in Lewisville, of which she was a devoted member and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J.F. Hunter, assisted by Rev. P.W. Moisenheim and were largely attended. Interment was in the new cemetery at Lewisville.

Mrs. Lafferre was essentially a home woman, the comfort and happiness at her own fireside being her first consideration. And the passing stranger and more intimate friend who enjoyed the radiant warmth of the friendly spirit of the home will always remember her as one ever ready to minister and serve in the kindly spirit of Him whose teachings she loved and followed.

In her death, not only the family mourn the departure of a devoted wife and mother but the community, a splendid neighbor and friend.

JACOB H. HAMILTON

(Obituary)

Jacob H. Hamilton, one of the most prominent and favorably known citizens of this county, died at his home near Lewisville, January 25, 1895. He was born in Greene County, Pennsylvania on April 11, 1817, and came to Ohio with his parents John and Margaret (Wise) Hamilton in 1820 and settled near Barnesville, Belmont County, where they remained for two years.

In 1822, when the subject of this notice was only five years of age, his parents located on government land on Wills Creek, near Lewisville, where he grew to manhood and where his parents made their home til the end of their earthly pilgrimage.

Mr. Hamilton was married December 28, 1840 to Maria J. Robinson, who was born in Ireland, May 18, 1820, and came to this country with her parents in 1831. In 1850 he moved to his late residence west of Lewisville, where he resided until his death. His wife preceded him many years, dying August 21, 1864. Nine children were born to them, two of whom preceded them to the grave,—seven remain to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted father, who at all times sought to advance their educational and material welfare, at the same time he expected and exacted implicit obedience to his wishes.

Mr. Hamilton took deep interest in what ever tended to advance the prosperity of his township and county, and in the township and other official positions which he held he was prompt in the discharge of every duty. His principal business in life was that of a farmer and stock raiser in which he was very successful. He engaged for many years in merchandise and in dealing in wool and tobacco at this place of residence which was generally know as—Hamilton's.

After a life well spent, he died of cystitis after an illness of one week, and was interned in Buchanan Cemetery, January 28, 1895. He lived for many years a consistent and worthy member of the Presbyterian Church, and was placed at rest by his brethren of Stafford Lodge, F. & A. Masons.

"After Life's fitful fever, he sleeps well."

HANNAH J. BILLMAN

(Obituary)

Hannah J. Billman was born near Lewisville, Ohio, January 31, 1839 and died February 20, 1918 at the age of 79 years and 19 days. She was married in 1860 to Charles F. Billman who served his country faithfully and well during the late rebellion, he having preceded her to the Great Beyond 34 years ago.

To this union were born five children, all of whom survive gave one daughter, Mrs. J.O.DeVoe of Lewisville who died several years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons, John H. of Lewisville, Ohio; James A. of Woodsfield, Ohio; Charles B. of Pittsburg, Pa. and one daughter, Mrs. J.N.Lafferre of Lewisville, Ohio. Also one sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Butt of Lewisville, Ohio; nineteen grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren and numerous relatives and friends.

Truly a good woman is gone, always kind and affectionate to her family and friends. She firmly believed in the purity and sanctity of the home and practiced the same thing in her exemplary life. Early in life she became a member of the Baptist Church. She infinitely trusted God who doeth all things well. Such was the life of one who has gone to her eternal reward. Long will she be remembered by her relatives and friends.

Farewell mother, until we meet again in the Elysian fields of Eternal Glory.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Hamilton Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Messenger of Summerfield, Ohio.

"Sweet to her slumber beneath the green sod,
While her pure spirit is resting with God."

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our many friends who so kindly and nobly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Billman. Such tokens of love and kindness shall never be forgotten.

ADELIA (HAMILTON) GRAMLICH

(Obituary)

(Died June 8, 1923)

Mention was made in this paper last week of the sad death of Mrs. Adelia Gramlich, widow of the late John W. Gramlich, and a sister of Mrs. Minnie Copeland of Oak Lawn Avenue on Friday, June 8th. Mrs. Gramlich was a daughter of the late Jacob J. and Maria Hamilton, and was born at Leecompton, west of Lewisville, and was 76 years, 2 months and 26 days old at the time of her death. She was married to John W. Gramlich of Lewisville on November 15, 1883. Mr. Gramlich died in 1910.

Mrs. Gramlich was a member of the Eastern Star and Woodsfield M.E. Church, both organizations paying respect to her not only during her commendable life but at the time of her death and funeral. She was a modest unassuming lady of many fine qualities, and will be sadly missed, not only by relatives, but by all who knew her.

Mrs. Gramlich is survived by her sister, Mrs. Minnie Copeland, widow of the late G.R. Copeland; G. Wire Hamilton of Prosser, Washington; Mrs. Margaret Wagonfield, near Lewisville; Mrs. Henry Hanson of Fort Wayne, Indiana. She was preceded in death by one brother, Dr. John Hamilton and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman.
